

K-Love has become a very important part of my daily life. It is important to me to feel connected to other members of the Christian faith. Since Christianity is not limited to location, I do not believe the radio station that supports this faith should be either. Please do not displace it by LPFM